Featured Regional Trails

Emerson Point Trail is located in the west central portion of Manatee County. This trail provides access to a popular state park and connects to Manatee River Greenway trails. The trail offers scenic views of the river and surrounding wildlife.

Myakka River Trail traverses the Myakka River State Park in northeast Manatee County. It is approximately 6 miles in length, stretching from the north park entrance to the south park entrance; it is popular for both hiking and biking.

Pinellas Trail is a 47-mile linear park and multi-use trail currently extending from St. Petersburg to Tarpon Springs. The Pinellas Trail runs along abandoned railroad corridors, serving as a transportation corridor and recreational facility through protected green space within an urbanized county.

Tampa Bay Pathway is a 42-mile paved multi-use trail parallel to the Suncoast Parkway in Hillsborough, Pasco and Hernando Counties. The Suncoast Trail serves as a transportation corridor and recreational facility for the region by providing an important north-south connector between public lands, parks and greenways.

Sunny Sun Trail is a 6.2 mile trail connection between Pasco County’s Starkey Wilderness Park and the Suncoast Trail. This trail allows Suncoast Trail users access to Starkey Wilderness Park amenities such as restrooms and camping facilities.

Sarasota/Walton-Sarasota Trail is a 6.2 mile trail between downtown Sarasota and Historic Spanish Point.

Suncoast Trail is a 42-mile linear park and multi-use trail currently extending from St. Petersburg to Tarpon Springs. The Pinellas Trail runs along abandoned railroad corridors, serving as a transportation corridor and recreational facility through protected green space within an urbanized county.

Tampa Bay Pathway is a 42-mile paved multi-use trail parallel to the Suncoast Parkway in Hillsborough, Pasco and Hernando Counties. The Suncoast Trail serves as a transportation corridor and recreational facility for the region by providing an important north-south connector between public lands, parks and greenways.

Van Fleet State Trail is named after General James A. Van Fleet, a distinguished combatant of both World Wars and the Korean War. This multi-use paved trail stretches for 29.2 miles and crosses 3 counties, Polk, Lake and Sumter County. This recreational corridor is part of an abandoned rail line that once belonged to Seaboard Air Line Railroad. The trail connects Polk City in the south to Mabel in Sumter county to the north.

Legacy Trail is a 19.6 mile trail that follows the former CSX railroad corridor from Clark Road in Sarasota to the Venice Train Station. At the Venice Train Station, the Legacy Trail meets the Venice Waterway Trail, which is separated by the Intracoastal Waterway. The Venetian Waterway Trail is a 10- mile paved multi-use trail on the either side of the waterway, terminating at the Caspian Beach in Venice.

Sarasota/Walton-Sarasota Trail is a 6.2 mile trail between downtown Sarasota and Historic Spanish Point.

Suncoast Trail is a 42-mile linear park and multi-use trail currently extending from St. Petersburg to Tarpon Springs. The Pinellas Trail runs along abandoned railroad corridors, serving as a transportation corridor and recreational facility through protected green space within an urbanized county.

Tampa Bay Pathway is a 42-mile paved multi-use trail parallel to the Suncoast Parkway in Hillsborough, Pasco and Hernando Counties. The Suncoast Trail serves as a transportation corridor and recreational facility for the region by providing an important north-south connector between public lands, parks and greenways.

Van Fleet State Trail is named after General James A. Van Fleet, a distinguished combatant of both World Wars and the Korean War. This multi-use paved trail stretches for 29.2 miles and crosses 3 counties, Polk, Lake and Sumter County. This recreational corridor is part of an abandoned rail line that once belonged to Seaboard Air Line Railroad. The trail connects Polk City in the south to Mabel in Sumter county to the north.

Legacy Trail is a 19.6 mile trail that follows the former CSX railroad corridor from Clark Road in Sarasota to the Venice Train Station. At the Venice Train Station, the Legacy Trail meets the Venice Waterway Trail, which is separated by the Intracoastal Waterway. The Venetian Waterway Trail is a 10- mile paved multi-use trail on the either side of the waterway, terminating at the Caspian Beach in Venice.

Sarasota/Walton-Sarasota Trail is a 6.2 mile trail between downtown Sarasota and Historic Spanish Point.

Suncoast Trail is a 42-mile linear park and multi-use trail currently extending from St. Petersburg to Tarpon Springs. The Pinellas Trail runs along abandoned railroad corridors, serving as a transportation corridor and recreational facility through protected green space within an urbanized county.

Tampa Bay Pathway is a 42-mile paved multi-use trail parallel to the Suncoast Parkway in Hillsborough, Pasco and Hernando Counties. The Suncoast Trail serves as a transportation corridor and recreational facility for the region by providing an important north-south connector between public lands, parks and greenways.

Van Fleet State Trail is named after General James A. Van Fleet, a distinguished combatant of both World Wars and the Korean War. This multi-use paved trail stretches for 29.2 miles and crosses 3 counties, Polk, Lake and Sumter County. This recreational corridor is part of an abandoned rail line that once belonged to Seaboard Air Line Railroad. The trail connects Polk City in the south to Mabel in Sumter county to the north.

Legacy Trail is a 19.6 mile trail that follows the former CSX railroad corridor from Clark Road in Sarasota to the Venice Train Station. At the Venice Train Station, the Legacy Trail meets the Venice Waterway Trail, which is separated by the Intracoastal Waterway. The Venetian Waterway Trail is a 10- mile paved multi-use trail on the either side of the waterway, terminating at the Caspian Beach in Venice.

Sarasota/Walton-Sarasota Trail is a 6.2 mile trail between downtown Sarasota and Historic Spanish Point.

Suncoast Trail is a 42-mile linear park and multi-use trail currently extending from St. Petersburg to Tarpon Springs. The Pinellas Trail runs along abandoned railroad corridors, serving as a transportation corridor and recreational facility through protected green space within an urbanized county.

Tampa Bay Pathway is a 42-mile paved multi-use trail parallel to the Suncoast Parkway in Hillsborough, Pasco and Hernando Counties. The Suncoast Trail serves as a transportation corridor and recreational facility for the region by providing an important north-south connector between public lands, parks and greenways.

Van Fleet State Trail is named after General James A. Van Fleet, a distinguished combatant of both World Wars and the Korean War. This multi-use paved trail stretches for 29.2 miles and crosses 3 counties, Polk, Lake and Sumter County. This recreational corridor is part of an abandoned rail line that once belonged to Seaboard Air Line Railroad. The trail connects Polk City in the south to Mabel in Sumter county to the north.